1. The first step in the process is to identify the problem or issue that needs to be addressed. This involves gathering information and understanding the context of the situation.

2. Once the problem is identified, the next step is to analyze the situation and determine the causes of the problem. This involves looking at the data and identifying the factors that are contributing to the issue.

3. After analyzing the situation, the next step is to develop a plan of action. This involves identifying the steps that need to be taken to address the problem and determining the resources that will be needed.

My father taught me how to draw the human
